

Washington, D.C. Office
202-737-8808
dmarvel@holtzmanvogel.com

Related Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation
- Corporate Governance
- Election Law
- Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA)
- Government Ethics Compliance
- Lobbying and Grassroots Advocacy
- Non-Profit and Tax-Exempt Organizations
- Political Law

Drew C. Marvel

Associate

Drew Marvel is an associate at Holtzman Vogel and focuses his practice on political and election law compliance and litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Drew was Deputy Counsel at the National Republican Congressional Committee, where he managed NRCC's involvement in elections, campaign finance, and redistricting related litigation nationwide.

Education

- William & Mary Law School, J.D., magna cum laude
 - William & Mary Bill of Rights Journal, Articles Editor
 - Election Law Society, President
- University of Maryland, Baltimore County, B.A., magna cum laude, Political Science
 - Pi Sigma Alpha (Political Science Honor Society)
 - Phi Kappa Phi (National Honor Society)

Bar & Court Admissions

- Maryland Bar

Clerkship/Government Experience

- National Republican Congressional Committee, Deputy Counsel
- Virginia Department of Elections, Legal Intern
- National Conference of State Legislatures - Elections & Redistricting Department, Legal Intern

News & Insights

- National Political, Regulatory & Litigation Law Firm Holtzman Vogel Adds Six Attorneys

Community Involvement

- Republican National Lawyers Association, Member

Articles/Presentations

Articles

- "Defending the States from Electoral Invasions," 28 WM. & MARY BILL RTS. J. 197 (2019)

Speaking Engagements

- RNLA's Election Law Seminar, speaker on redistricting panel (2021)