Timothy E. Kronquist

Partner

Tim Kronquist is a partner with Holtzman Vogel and provides service across the country to federal and state officeholders, candidates, leadership PACs, and other political committees (national party, traditional PACs, and Super PACs) in all aspects of campaign finance regulation, ethics compliance, and general operational matters. He also provides counsel to businesses, trade associations, and advocacy groups regarding political law, ethics compliance, and lobbying regulations and disclosure. Tim assists former Congressional members and Cabinet officials in navigating their transition from public office into private careers.

Tim was the General Counsel to the political office of U.S. House Speaker Paul Ryan. He also was counsel to Paul Ryan as the 2012 Republican Vice President nominee. In that role, he has the unique experience of handling dual candidacy matters in simultaneous Presidential and House of Representatives campaigns.
