William M. KlimonPartner

William M. Klimon is a partner at Holtzman Vogel. He has advised over 700 nonprofit organizations on a complete range of issues from formation to dissolution and has worked with many of the nation's most prominent private foundations, public charities, political campaigns, schools, and churches.

Bill has expertise in nonprofit mergers, acquisitions, reorganizations, and collaborations. Additionally, he pioneered the use of alternatives to board governance and limited liability companies in achieving nonprofit organizations' objectives.

Prior to joining the firm, Bill was Senior Counsel at a boutique law firm, and for more than 20 years was a member of the tax-exempt-organizations group at a well-regarded DC firm.

Bill served in the U.S. Army and was assigned to the U.S. Army Field Station in Berlin. Later, he was a Claude R. Lambe Fellow and a Philip Merrill Fellow in the history department of the graduate school at Cornell University.
