

State Attorneys General

Leveraging our deep understanding of the political and regulatory landscapes, we navigate complex legal challenges at the state level.

Holtzman Vogel's State Attorneys General Practice offers comprehensive legal representation to clients facing investigations and enforcement actions initiated by state attorneys general across the nation. Leveraging our deep understanding of the political and regulatory landscapes, we provide strategic counsel to corporations, non-profit organizations, political entities, and high-profile individuals navigating complex legal challenges at the state level.

The State Attorneys General Practice team also represents states and state officials who are navigating high-stakes litigation.

Our Services Include:

- Regulatory Compliance and Advisory: We assist clients in understanding and adhering to state laws and regulations, proactively identifying potential compliance issues to mitigate the risk of investigations.
- Investigation Defense: Our team has extensive experience defending clients in investigations conducted by state attorneys general, employing tailored strategies to protect our clients' interests and reputations.
- Litigation and Dispute Resolution: Should disputes escalate, we are prepared to represent clients in litigation, leveraging our appellate and trial experience to achieve favorable outcomes. Our attorneys bring a wealth of experience from serving in high-level government positions, including roles within the U.S. Department of Justice and various state attorneys general offices. This insider perspective enables us to anticipate prosecutorial strategies and effectively advocate on behalf of our clients.

Holtzman Vogel attorneys are committed to delivering exceptional legal services with discretion and efficiency, ensuring that our clients receive the highest level of representation in matters involving state attorneys general.