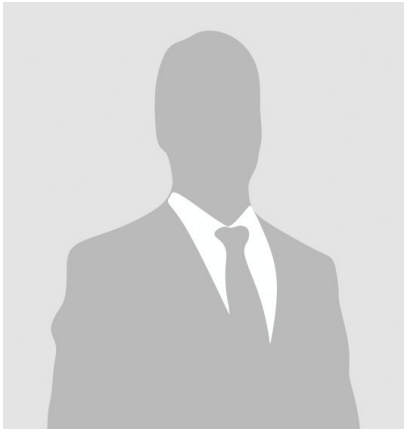
HOLTZMAN VOGEL



New York, NY Office
646-792-9288
gblacklock@holtzmanvogel.com

Related Practice Areas

- Appellate
- Commercial Litigation
- Constitutional Law
- Election Law
- Government and Congressional Investigations

Gabriel Blacklock

Law Clerk

Gabriel Blacklock is a law clerk at Holtzman Vogel and focuses his practice on commercial litigation, administrative and regulatory law, appellate litigation, constitutional law, and election law.

Prior to joining the firm, Gabriel clerked for Judge Stuart Kyle Duncan on the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit and was a summer associate at Holtzman Vogel.

While at Harvard Law School, Gabriel served as a research assistant to Professor Jack Goldsmith and interned at a top constitutional law firm, where he conducted legal and legislative research.

Before law school, Gabriel worked as a paralegal at the Home School Legal Defense Association.

Education

- Harvard Law School, J.D.
  - Research Assistant, Professor Jack Goldsmith
  - Harvard Journal of Law & Public Policy
  - Harvard Federalist Society
- Patrick Henry College, B.A., summa cum laude, Government, emphasis in Strategic Intelligence
  - Moot Court Varsity Team, Competitor
  - National Model United Nations Team, Delegate

Clerkship/Government Experience

- Judicial Clerk, Hon. Stuart Kyle Duncan, United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit