

Jared Young

Associate

Jared Young is an associate at Holtzman Vogel and focuses his practice on commercial litigation, appellate law and constitutional law.

Previously, Jared was a summer associate with the law firm, a law clerk in the Office of the Attorney General of Florida's Office of Legal Policy and a special projects coordinator for Representative John Rutherford (FL-04) District Office.

Education

- University of Florida Levin College of Law, cum laude, J.D.
 - Journal of Law and Public Policy, Executive Managing Editor
 - Federalist Society, President
 - Christian Legal Society, Vice President of Meetings
 - Florida Moot Court Team, External Vice President
 - Florida Blue Key, Member
- Florida State University, M.S., Applied American Politics and Policy
- University of Florida, B.A., cum laude

Bar & Court Admissions

- The Florida Bar

Clerkship/Government Experience

- Law Clerk, Office of the Attorney General of Florida's Office of Legal Policy
- Special Projects Coordinator, Representative John Rutherford (FL-04) District Office