Lindsey Lazopoulos Friedman

Partner

Lindsey Lazopoulos Friedman is a Partner at Holtzman Vogel, where she focuses on government investigations, white-collar criminal defense, and complex litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Lindsey served as Chief in the Major Crimes Section of the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida, where she was an Assistant United States Attorney from 2018 to 2025. During her tenure, she tried 13 cases to verdict and resolved over 100 criminal cases, with trial experience spanning healthcare fraud, money laundering, drug importation, arms and ivory smuggling, and related offenses. She served in the National Security Section, Economic and Environmental Crimes Section, Major Crimes Section, and Appellate Division, prosecuting cases ranging from gang violence and terrorism to artifact smuggling and CARES Act fraud. She holds an active Top Secret/Sensitive Compartmented Information Clearance and has extensive experience in counterintelligence, counterterrorism investigation, and cyber-crimes prosecution.

In 2021, the Council of Inspectors General honored Lindsey with the Investigation Award of Excellence for prosecuting thieves who stole millions worth of respiratory ventilators allocated for shipment abroad as part of a U.S.-led humanitarian effort during the pandemic. Her team recovered the entire shipment using cutting-edge search techniques, and the Council featured her case as an example of excellence in a Report to Congress and the Office of the U.S. President.

Before joining the United States Attorney's Office, Lindsey practiced complex civil litigation, white-collar criminal defense and labor law at a Florida litigation firm and a national AmLaw 100 firm. She also served as a law clerk to U.S. Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals Chief Judge Alex Kozinski and Southern District of Florida U.S. District Judge Robert N. Scola.
