

Teresa Rose
Chief Administrative Officer

Teresa Rose serves as Chief Administrative Officer of Holtzman Vogel, providing firm-wide leadership across day-to-day internal operations and administrative functions. She partners closely with firm leadership on strategic initiatives, ensures adherence to legal, regulatory, and organizational requirements, and is responsible for optimizing resources and monitoring financial performance.

Teresa has been with the firm for more than two decades. Working alongside the firm's managing partner from the outset, she has played an integral role in building the firm and shaping its financial foundation since inception.

Haymarket, VA Office
540-341-8808
trose@holtzmanvogel.com